Paula Osorio
Deputy Director at ColCapital

Paula Osorio is the Deputy Director at ColCapital since June 2018, with more than 13 years of work experience in national and international companies, in areas related to foreign direct investment, public and government affairs, commercial and intellectual property law, and business development. Prior experiences include attracting FDI as a senior adviser in ProColombia, as well as legal counseling for international and national companies in IP related matters in a boutique Law Firm in Bogota. Paula has a Law degree from the Sergio Arboleda University in Bogota, Colombia, and has postgraduate studies in management and business from the California University – Los Angeles.